

Hi

Just a couple of notes for your diaries

Firstly, following the previous notice about the death of Ron Smith, please note that there will be a Memorial Service in the RAF St George's Chapel at Biggin Hill on 23rd September 2005 at 11:00. If you plan to attend, please phone Julie Brewer on 01795 842941 so that she can keep the family advised of likely numbers.

Next: The Air Fair is upon us again - the show is this weekend (3rd and 4th September). For those of you participating in the actual show, I will undoubtedly see you over in the Pilots Enclosure. If you haven't taken advantage of the previously notified special ticket issue for private owners, or obtained show entry tickets via your flying clubs, the advance ticket office is well and truly closed now, so the only options are to pay on the gate at normal rates. However, please bear in mind that you do NOT need show entry tickets to get to Joe's Pilots Pals bar, where Joe will make you very welcome over the weekend. Whilst you can't access the showground itself, you can see the display from the bar and garden area outside AND meet many old friends who take the opportunity to come to the airfield over this weekend.

So feel free to come to the bar and enjoy Joe's hospitality, with Barbecue's and entertainment on the Saturday, it is always a good weekend.

Regards
John Willis
